

Minube PRESSKIT

Some things are just a fact: This guy has got some serious groove! Minube, Moldavian bred DJ and producer stands for bewitching and atmospheric sounds. He's the head honcho of the label readredrec and also a skilled live musician as a half of sol_soundoflife. Best described as a thoughtful and careful creator, he has become well known for his deep and spheric sounds. His one of a kind style easily takes the listener on a deep emotional journey. Finding the fine line between rhythm and melody, he always keeps a certain level of tension, which is unique as fuck. Minube's meticulously synthesized music and clear color are as inspiring as the man himself. We are eager to hear more and more of his impressive output as it finds its way from his studio to the dance-floors around the globe - stopping time and space...
