

nicolas PRESSKIT

Munich based DJ and producer nicolas is spinning records with a deep passion for smooth grooves for over a decade. Always focused on quality sound, he has developed into an audiophile listener, collector and presenter. His deeply personal and unique collection allows him to take in the vibe and connect with the crowd in his own way. Constantly developing his approach to music, he manages to always stay true to himself and his unique taste - a combination of timeless music and contemporary minimal pieces.

nicolas' debut EP „moscot“, released on WHATNOWBECOMES, is the first release under his new alias. Previously known as nihko, he held residencies at Club Autonomica and Rote Sonne in Munich. During this period, labels such as Visionquest, Suruba, RFR and many more, gave him a fitting platform to release his driving sound.

